

WHO ATTENDS THE AMOS CONFERENCE?

See what companies, universities, and government organizations have attended AMOS over the years since its inception in 1999 – updated Dec 31, 2024

A program of Maui Economic Development Board, Inc.

14th Air Force	Aboa Space Research Oy (ASRO)	Air Force Technical Applications Center
15th Space Surveillance Squadron	ABOSPL	Air Force TENCAP
17th Test Squadron	Accenture	Airbus
18th Space Control Squadron	Acquistion, Technology and Logistics	Airbus Defence and Space
18th Space Defense Squadron	Agency, Ministry of Defense	Airspace Protection Services LLC
18th Space Surveillance Squadron	ActioNet, Inc.	Akima
19th Space Defense Squadron	Acumen Scientific	Akimeka
1st Command and Control Squadron	Adam Mickiewicz University	Alaka`ina Family of Companies
1st Space Control Squadron	Adaptive Technologies Corporaion	Alamos National Laboratory
1st Space Operations Squadron	ADM(IIM)	Alaska Aerospace Corporation
20th Space Control Squadron	Advanced Institute of Science and	Albuquerque High Performance
20th Space Surveillance Squadron	Technology	Computing Center
21 Operations Support Squadron	Advanced Mission Systems, Raytheon	Aldoria
21 Space Wing	Intelligence and Space	ALES
216th EWS	Advanced Scientific Concepts	Aleut O&M Services, LLC
21st Century Systems Inc. (21 CSI)	Advanced Space	Alion Science & Technology
21st Operations Group	Advanced Space & Intelligence Systems	Allied Signal Technical Services
222 Command & Control Squadron	Advanced Space Ops School	Corporation
3 SES	Advanced Technology Center	Allies and Partners Group LLC
3 TES	Aeronomics	Aloha Autonomy
30th Space Communications Squadron	Aerospace Corporation	ALPAO SAS
319th Combat Training Squadron	Aerospace Fusion Center	Altamira Technologies Corporation
392 CTS, Space Delta 1	Aerospace Industries Association	Amazon
3C Systems Company	Aerospace Policy Solutions, LLC	Amazon Kuiper
3rd Space Experimentation Squadron	Aerospace Systems, Germany	Amazon Web Services (AWS)
3rd Space Operations Squadron	Aerospace Technical Alliance	AMERGINT Technologies
3rd Test & Eval Squadron, STARCOM	Aerospace Technical Services	American Museum of Natural History
412th Test Wing, U.S. Air Force	Aerospace Testing Alliance	American National Standards Institute
42d Combat Training Squadron	Aerotek	Americom Government Services
46 Test Squadron	AeroVironment Inc.	AmirKabir University of Technology
4th Space Operations Squadron	Aetherflux	AML Systems Co., Ltd
50 Operations Group / Orbital Analysis	AFGSC/A3IT	Amphenol Times Microwave Systems
Support Contract	AFLCMC	AMRDEC, RDECOM
50th Space Wing, U.S. Air Force	AFNWC/NDBD	Anduril
57th Space Aggressor Squadron	AFRCO	Ansys
6 Remote Observatories for Asteroids	AFSEC/SES	AOARD
and Debris Searching	Agency for Defence Development	AOptix Technologies, Inc.
614th Air Operations Center	AGI	Apassianato di Spazio
6ROADS	AGI, An Ansys Company	Apogee Engineering LLC
6th Space Warning Squadron	Agilametrics	Applied Defense Solution
7 Wing / 7 SOPS	Agilation Solutions, LLC	Applied Optimization
71 ISRS, Det 2	Agilex	Applied Research Associates
711 HPW	AIAA	Applied Science Innovations, Inc.
718th Test Squadron	Air Force Institute of Technology	Applied Technology Associates
750 OSS	Air Force International Affairs	Aptima, Inc.
850th Electronic Systems Group	Air Force Office of Scientific Research	Arcfield
98th Space Range	(AFOSR)	Arecibo Observatory (USRA)
a.i. solutions	Air Force Research Laboratory (AFRL)	Arete
Aalyria	Air Force Safety Center	ArianeGroup
AAS Space Times	Air Force Space Battlrelab	ARINC Engineering Services, LLC
ABB Canada	Air Force Space Command	Arizona State University
ABL/ALX	Air Force Space Systems	ARKA

The Advanced Maui Optical and Space Surveillance Technologies (AMOS) Conference is the premier technical conference in the nation devoted to space situational awareness/space domain awareness.
